HEIDELBERG, Germany -- U.S. Army in Europe Soldiers and civilian employees donated more than $2 million in support of the 2009 Combined Federal Campaign-Overseas.

The USAREUR command team, Gen. Carter F. Ham and Command Sgt. Maj. Ralph R. Beam, as well as the Installation Management Command-Europe command team, Diane M. Devens and Command Sgt. Maj. Tracey E. Anbiya, thanked the USAREUR team for choosing to "unselfishly sacrifice your personal resources to aid others who need our help."

In July, 2009, USAREUR received nearly $93,000 for quality of life programs resulting from contributions to the Family Support and Youth Program for the 2008 CFC-O campaign.

The 2009 CFC-O campaign began Oct. 5 and ended Dec. 4.
